"I voted as I did in the Legislature he said, "knowing full well that if th Board of Health turned Wallach down it would become a political matter The Hawaiians would believe that the Board of Health was withholding remedies that would cure leprosy, and t convince the Hawaiians that the Boar was not doing any such thing, I vote for the concurrent resolution. I thin no hasty action should be taken, suggest that action be deferred to al low the leaders of the different parties to get together and make this a nor political matter.

"There is a saying among the Ha-waiians that the Board is merely making money for the merchants. 4 think Wallach's remedies should be tried."
CASTRO A WALLACH MAN.

A. D. Castro, agreed with Dr. Way-on's views. He said they were the rame views expressed by the Legisla-ture. "I believe Wallach has been in many instances proved to be a fake," be said, "but to dispel the belief on the part of the Hawaiians, I think he ought to be given a chance, I know that Wallach has said that the Hawalians were easy and he intended to make a lot of money off them." NOTLEY THUNDERS.

NOTLEY THUNDERS.

Then Charlie Notley, Wallach's most ardent champion, took the floor and made a grandstand play. He called to his aid all the aris by which he sways the Hawaiians. He put tears into his voice. He thundered. He pleaded. He threatened. His appearance of spatiment.

was purely one of sentiment.
"I know Wallach can cure leprosy,"
